

Host a quiz night

Help end domestic abuse

women's aid
until women & children are safe

Ready to get quizzing?

Do you feel angry about the state of women's safety in the UK today?

With the police receiving 100 calls an hour relating to domestic abuse, we know so much needs to change until women and children are safe. If you're looking to fundraise with your friends or family, but haven't got hours to plan an event, a quiz night could be the perfect fundraiser for you!

We're here to provide you with all the information you need to host your very own quiz night. Every penny you raise means we can provide urgent support to women escaping abuse.

Don't worry, you don't have to spend time pondering up questions, this pack contains a ready-to-go quiz, with rounds from women in music to historical quotes and 'who am I's.

Get promoting

To help promote your quiz, we've also got some editable posters you print off. Put them up in a communal space, or share via social media. Just be mindful who you are sharing your location with.

Quiz checklist

You only need a few essentials to run a quiz night, but you could maximise the fun by choosing a theme, what about dress up as your favourite female icon? Or ask everyone to also bring a raffle contribution and you can also sell raffle tickets on the day!

Tip 1

Decide on logistics

Host either at home, a local pub or community venue. We've got advice here on staying safe and legal. Alternatively, you could run the quiz via Zoom and request a donation to your fundraising page to join.

Tip 2

Gather the gang!

Set up a group chat with your friends and family to find a date when everyone is free for your quiz night. If you're competitive, be sure to choose your team's trivia troops wisely...

Tip 3

Create a JustGiving page

You can set up your page in minutes by clicking here. Include all the information required, a target for your fundraising and why you're passionate about the cause.

Tip 4

Create a QR code for donations

People rarely carry cash, so set up, a free QR code in seconds. Click here to find out how. Print or screenshot the code people can scan your phone from theirs on the day to donate.

Don't forget to personalise your fundraising page with photos and share it far and wide. Ask friends and family who can't make the quiz to donate instead.

We'd love to send you a Women's Aid T-shirt that you can proudly wear, drop us an email and we'll get it in the post.

We love seeing our fundraisers in their quiz teams! Let us know what you're up to by tagging us in your posts. We're @womensaid on Facebook and Twitter and @womens_aid on Instagram and TikTok. Use #TeamWomensAid in your posts too!

"In the past, Women's Aid have shown my family and I kindness and hope when we needed it the most.

I now live a life where I thrive, not just survive. Fundraising for the charity has been an incredible journey which I would recommend to anyone."
